

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

Libelous, obscene, and/or personal attacks on individuals are prohibited from any student publication that may be sponsored by a school or may be distributed on school premises. The distribution of any published matter on school premises will not interfere in any way with the educational process in the Gloucester County Public Schools. Student publications or printed materials encouraging or advocating drug use or abuse are prohibited from school premises; any student who possesses or distributes such materials on school premises will be disciplined appropriately by the school.
